

Dutchess County's second Dragon Boat Race and Festival is coming up this July 25th in Poughkeepsie on the Hudson River. The festival will feature a day of dragon boat races along the river and an Asian Cultural Festival with live music, events, arts and artisans, and food vendors.

We are especially interested in Asian food vendors and artisans practicing or demonstrating traditional skills. Do you make handmade craft items, art, or other unique offerings?

We invite you to secure your place to participate – whether you are a food vendor, or an artist selling handmade items – we anticipate this festive event to be well-attended! The 2014 festival brought nearly 3,000 people to the waterfront. Vendors will be accepted on a space-available basis.
